1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has filed a complaint against ASI Nathi Lal, Constable Rajinder Kumar and Constable Sanju of police booth Kalkaji Metro Station for illegal detention, threat to eliminate in encounter, getting blank paper signed under pressure and snatching Rs. 26,000/-. The complainant has stated that on 7.9.2017 he alongwith his friends was intercepted for an enquiry by the police personnels at Police Booth Kalkaji Metro Station at 7.00 p.m. Though all their queries were answered and ID of one of his friends was made available to the police, still the police personnel who were drunk misbehaved with them, abused them and even physically thrashed them. On their request to intimate their family members, the police personnel threatened them to eliminate in fake encounter and kept all of them in custody till 11.00 p.m. Apart from this, the police personnel pressurized them to sign some blank papers and also snatched Rs. 26,000/- from them. He has requested for legal action in the matter.

Order under Para 2(B) of the PGC Resolution No F.4/14/94-AR dated 30.7.1998

3 Relevant facts emerging during the hearing

The alleged police officials of PS Kalkaji are present and reiterated their statements as given in enquiry report of ASI Dayanand, EO/PG Cell/SED, dated 15.11.2017. However, the complainant is again not present to substantiate his allegations. The complainant has not attended any of the three hearings held in the Commission so far. It appears that he is not interested in pursuing his case in PGC.

4. Directions of PGC

In view of the above, the Commission has decided to close the case in PGC.
