1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has filed a complaint stating that some persons seriously assaulted her son on 19.2.2017. On making the complaint of the incident, some one from the public at No. 100, the police turned up and took her son to the police station and detained him there but relieved the alleged persons/ assaulters. She has further alleged that on approaching the concerned ASI for registration of complaint, the ASI did not register the complaint nor did he pay any heed to prepare MLC of her son. He only forced them for a settlement, threatening to implicate her son in a false case. He also demanded Rs.20 thousand for him and for SHO. He only let them go after paying Rs. 2000/- in cash and a promise to pay the remaining Rs. 18,000/- at evening and kept her son's mobile phone (Apple) and keys of their car. She has requested for legal action in the matter.
