1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has filed a complaint in PGC stating that on 17.11.2017 at about 7-7.30 p.m., an incident happened with his daughter i.e. she was beaten, rape attempted and her gold ear ring alongwith Rs. 5000/- were snatched from her for which several calls were made at No. 100, but no one came to the spot even no police official came during the MLC. He further stated that when they reached to PS Pandav Nagar, they did not find any lady police officer on Women Help Desk to whom his daughter could give her complaint. They tried to contact SHO but could not succeed as he (SHO) refused to meet with them, and after waiting around one hour, IO H.C. Lalit came to Police Station and he requested the IO to record his daughter's statement but he shouted on him and used unparliamentary language. The complainant has requested for legal action against the IO HC Lalit, and all culprits who are involved in crime so that his daughter may get justice.
