The complainant has filed a complaint of suppression of facts in the FIR lodged by mentioning attack with sharp object instead of the facts that the injury was inflicted by a knife. He has stated that on 13.1.2018 his son Raju was attacked by goon namely, Illyas who attacked him with a knife and inflicted injuries on his stomach /abdomen. After some time on making complaint, the police turned up on the spot and recovered the blood stained knife from the alleged and kept in a cover. On 14.1.2018, a major surgery was performed and 20 stitches were put on his stomach. He has further stated that he ran from one person to another but was not able to get the case registered and was even abused by ASI Satbir Singh. When he came to know that FIR No. 27 dated 13.1.2018 had been registered on his son's statement he was surprised as the police did not take any statement of his son and it was mentioned that the attack was made with a sharp object suppressing the fact of attack by knife.
