3 Relevant facts emerging during the hearing

An ATR has been sent by Shri D.K. Singh, ACP/PG Cell for DCP/Central District vide No. 9155/Complt.(C-II/KB)/C dated 27.12.2017, stating the following :-

- i. An enquiry into the complaint was got conducted through ACP/Karol Bagh. During enquiry, the complainant, alleged persons and all concerned were examined and their statements were recorded. It was revealed that the property in question is owned by Shri Tirath Ram and on 19.4.2016, he had executed a GPA in favour of his three sons namely Kishore, Parveen and Khushal (the complainant). On 3.7.2017, he had cancelled the said GPA executed in favour of Parveen and Khushal. Consequently, he was assaulted by his both sons Parveen and Khushal. On the ground floor of the property, there are 08 shops whereas the 1st, 2nd & 3rd Floor are big halls. The shops i.e. 3 & 4 is learnt to be received by Khushal and that too from 8.8.2017 onwards. The allegation of theft and trespass could not be substantiated during enquiry as there is no witness to support the allegation leveled by the complainant. Both the parties are pressurizing each other by making false complaints. Since there is property dispute among the family members, no cognizable offence made out and no more police action is warranted at this stage.

The complainant is advised that if threat is extended to him, he ^{may} make a call at No. 100 and also lodge a written complaint in local police station. On
