1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has made a complaint against Sanjay Kumar, SHO/Mundka for his misbehavior and using abusive language on 30.3.2018. Further she had made a complaint to CP Delhi. As per complainant, alleged is pressing hard to withdraw the complaint and he is approaching to her relatives for that. The complainant has requested for legal action in the matter.

2. Facts emerged during the proceedings

The complainant is working as Head Constable in Delhi Police at present. It was advised to approach senior officers/Special CP (Vigilance) for conducting fair enquiry in the matter. No body from Delhi Police is present during the hearing.

3. Directions of PGC

Since the complainant is in service at present so instead of approaching to Commission, she is advised to approach her senior officers in the matter.

With the above advice, the Commission has decided to close the case in PGC.
